

How big is China's energy storage capacity?

According to CNESA data, the capacity of independent energy storage stations planned or under construction in China in the first half of 2022 was 45.3GW, accounting for over 80% of all new energy storage projects planned or under construction.

What are the characteristics of energy storage industry development in China?

Throughout 2020, energy storage industry development in China displayed five major characteristics: 1. New Integration Trends Appeared The integration of renewable energy with energy storage became a general trend in 2020.

How many electrochemical storage stations are there in China?

In terms of developments in China, 19 members of the National Power Safety Production Committee operated a total of 472 electrochemical storage stations as of the end of 2022, with a total stored energy of 14.1GWh, a year-on-year increase of 127%.

Why are China's energy storage stations so low?

However, the scale of new independent energy storage stations put into operation in China in the first three quarters of 2022 was approximately 345.5MW, which was significantly lower than planned or under construction stations. The main reason for this may be that investors lack motivation.

How has energy storage been developed?

Energy storage first passed through a technical verification phase during the 12th Five-year Plan period, followed by a second phase of project demonstrations and promotion during the 13th Five-year Plan period. These phases have laid a solid foundation for the development of technologies and applications for large-scale development.

How to promote the implementation of independent energy storage stations?

To promote the implementation of independent energy storage stations, it is necessary to further optimise the electricity market mechanism, segments and targets. Investor participation is beneficial for the development of the energy storage industry.
